

MONSTER INDOOR ATHLETIC MEETING SOON TO BE HELD ON "Y" GAMES HALL FLOOR

April 4th is the date set for the big Y. M. C. A. athletic carnival to be followed by the annual pentathlon meet on the 15th of the same month. Already the arrangements are well advanced and the details of the meet are being completed. There will be a very diverse program of events as may be seen from the list given below, as it is the hope of the committee in charge of the games that every member of the association will take part. Special banks are being constructed for the large upstairs games hall of the association building so that a very fast track is assured and one free of the usual obstructions that are encountered in the gallery track of the regular gymnasium.

The games hall is ideally designed for such a track and field meet, and the large gallery gives the parents and friends of the contestants a splendid opportunity to watch all the events without the least danger or fear of interference with the contestants. The games are being put on for the membership alone, although there will be a few feature events such as the one mile interscholastic relay and the inter-Sunday school relay (for boys under 16 years of age) which will be open to other than association members. Judging from the showing that the preparatory school teams in the city have been making this season, there is little doubt but what there will be a classy field in the former event.

WHEN UMPIRE EVANS HAD ENOUGH OF IT

At Ebbets park, Philadelphia, late in the 1912 season, Johnson was pitching, and it was growing very dark. Billy Evans was umpiring behind the bat and everybody expected him to call the game long before he did. The score was 1 to 0 and Walter was at bat.

Rip Williams was catching that day. Two were out and Frank Baker at the bat.

Johnson cut loose with one of his favorite slow balls. Williams reached out, his hands shoulder high, the ball blazed its way through like a rifle bullet piercing a piece of tissue paper. The ball had whiskers on it as it whizzed within half an inch of Umpire Evans' right ear and landed up against the grand stand with a resounding smack.

"Game called! I don't propose to get killed," shouted the good-looking indicator handler, as he yanked off his mask and beat it for the clubhouse.

Four passengers were injured when a train on the Marblehead branch of the Boston and Maine railroad struck an open switch and crashed into a freight car at Salem, Mass.

be placed in the highest class (the open) and the man of no experience in track athletics will have his own kind to compete with and all classes will be as nearly equal as possible. One of the most interesting features of this meet will be the 30-yard dash for all classes and the 30-yard low hurdles for all comers.

As such short sprints have never been attempted before in this city on an indoor track plenty of excitement is promised. The immense area of the games hall accounts for the fact that the officials of the association are enabled to put on these two stellar indoor events. Prizes will be offered in all of the events and in the events where the contestants are divided into three classes three sets of prizes will be awarded. The gallery of the games hall will seat 300 as a limit and the capacity will undoubtedly be tested to the utmost. All members of the association who desire to enter the meet may hand in their names to the secretary in charge, W. H. Heinrich.

The following are the events scheduled for the big meet:

Senior Inter-Bible Club Relay Race—Four men teams each to run 3 laps.

Employed Boys' Club Relay Race—Four men teams each to run 2 laps.

Special Inter-Sunday School Relay Race—For all boys under 16 years of age.

FEDS MAY HAVE AFFILIATIONS

If the Federal League weathers the storm of 1914 and proves that it can exist without the aid of organized baseball, then prepare for a real baseball war. It's coming, coming, says the Fed. It means that probably in 1915 there will be a rival baseball organization of which the Fed will do the dictating.

This war will not be Fed vs. R. B. Johnson, J. K. Tener and other major leaguers, but will be Federal League baseball against organized baseball.

Williams in a recent interview printed in a St. Louis paper, has offered the startling information that minor league promoters are just aching for the chance to join hands with the Fed. It means that probably in 1915 there will be a rival baseball organization of which the Fed will do the dictating.

"I traveled all through the South," related Williams, "and was surprised at the interest being shown in this present fight between the Fed and the major leagues. Why, they all want the Federal League because they know it will end the czar-like tactics that now predominate in baseball."

"I tell you it's going to mean an upheaval in baseball, because we'll be able to branch out, organize minor leagues in the small towns and have them affiliated right with us."

"I met many, many folks in the South who offered to organize clubs and leagues if they could join our organization. And these same men have repeatedly refused to become associated with the current reign of baseball."

The Federal League now is limited to its third league circuit of eight cities. Out of the jurisdiction of organized baseball it is considered an "outlaw" and does not receive the usual protection from the National Commission or the Minor League Association.

But the formation of minor leagues, in conjunction with the Federal League, would start an all-around war in baseball. At present it simply is the major vs. the third leagues.

Williams was quite enthusiastic over the prospects of the Fed. "We're a go sure," continued the Chicago official, "and while we are not anxious to start a fuss with anybody we're not going to be stopped by the big leagues."

"They can't keep us out, and if business demands it will string out with minor leaguers next season. This increase will make it more profitable for the ball player and will cause many more boys to enter the game. Then we can pick our Federal players from these smaller leagues."

"It only requires a bit of training and schooling to develop the ball player. In the majors he is held down if he doesn't abide by their ruling then he is ousted and cannot enter their organization. I know, because I was with the Cubs long enough to learn their inside workings."

SENIOR FALL BEFORE LOWER OAHU CLASSMEN

Alexander field was the scene of a lively track meet yesterday when the seniors of the College went down to defeat, the hands of the lower classmen being score of 53-43. It was not until the meet was about over that the seniors had been defeated, and the excitement among the supporters of the arrival teams was raised to the high pitch. The weather conditions were perfect, and with the track in good condition the runners were able to make off some good races.

Harry Brown of the seniors came through with the greatest number of points, winning a total of 22. In every event that he was entered he made a place winning a first in three events, a second in two and third in one. Brown, captain of the winners, won the greatest number of points for his team, running up 9 in all. Lindley and Smith also did well by making 4 points each for the victorious team.

The first on the program, the 100-yard dash, was won by Baldwin of the seniors, with Inman second and Gay third. Both Inman and Baldwin stole the show since Gay had a sore ankle, lost in the first and was not able to make up the lost yards. Once Lindley of the winners found the winning of the pole vault an easy matter, and he took the initial position when he cleared 10 feet. Brown, one of the under classes, came second and Baldwin added another point to his string by coming third.

The 400-yard run was won without any trouble at all by Watt of the winners. Only the men were entered and when Watt saw that Watt had things his way he lagged behind, coming in on to give the seniors four points. Kim Wai proved a dark horse in the following race, the hurdles. He kept the lead until the last hurdle when Baldwin sprinted past Watt and took the last place. Inman of the seniors took the last place.

Following the hurdles the fans on hand, Brown in the high jump in a pretty style. Brown has adopted a new style in which the bar is approached from the front and he has that almost down to perfection. He took the first place by jumping 5 feet 3 inches. Baldwin again came by coming second while Watt and Lindley took third place for their class team.

James proved the dark horse of the afternoon when he defeated Brown Watt, O'Dowda and Webster, expected runners, in the half mile race. Captain Brown hit up a fast pace, the start and kept it up for the distance. Smith had himself under good control and he won the race in Brown in the last sprint, covering the distance in 2 minutes 14 seconds. Watt took third, finishing very strong.

Text race on the program was won by many as the best event of the afternoon—the quarter mile. St. Austin took the lead at the start and ran at a terrific pace. His next man was a good five yards in front until the runners were 50 yards from the finish when Watt sped forward from the rear and won the race in the good time of 55.5. Smith did well by coming second and Austin came third, giving the seniors one point.

A broad jump was won by Harry Brown, who covered 20 feet 4 inches. George Lindley proved a second by coming within 2 inches of Baldwin, and Menoher came away third.

Watt took the shotput easily by piling the iron 39 feet 6 inches, and Brown of the winners took second and Gay third.

Best Gay showed the fans that he would run when he took the 220 yard. He took the lead at the start, crossed the line a good five feet ahead of Baldwin, who came second. McStocker was third. Owing to darkness the under classmen gave seniors the relay.

FANS WILL FLOCK TO SEE CHINESE IN FINAL GAME

SAM HOP

IT'S good-bye to the All-Chinese baseball team next Tuesday, and on Sunday fandom will have its last chance to see the team in action for many a long month. Since October last the Chinese have been playing at home, playing a class of ball that is far and away the best ever seen in the islands, and now, on the eve of their departure for a third tour of the mainland, the Honolulu Ad Club is promoting a monster benefit game for these Chinese-Americans, who spread publicity with a baseball bat. In any event, Sunday's game would be a big drawing card, but with the Ad Club members plugging for it, look out for a "world's series crowd," and come early if you want a place to sit, or even preferred standing room.

To oppose the Chinese in their last game, the Oahu, the strongest team that is representing this island in the inter-island tournament, have been picked. Last Sunday the Oahu and Chinese played an 8 to 8, 12-inning game, which was called on account of darkness. "Nuff said."

The Oahu are about the same organization that won the Oahu League pennant last year under the name of the Hawaiis, although Manager Dave Deesha has been bolstering up weak spots, with a new man here, and a change there, until the team is about the strongest combination that the Chinese have ever seen. The Chinese are picked to go against the Chinese champs. Big Barney Joy will be in the box for the Oahu. Last Sunday, when the game was apparently hopelessly lost in the ninth inning, Barney was putting on his street clothes when a hurry call came from the diamond, but when he went back to the mound he got better and better. Joy has tipped it off to his friends that he is going to put every ounce of strength and skill into tomorrow's game, and that if he can beat the Chinese tomorrow, he doesn't care if he never huris another one over the plate.

Foster Robinson is the probable selection for the Chinese, although Manager Sam Hop is not sure whether he will work Foster or Apau Kau. It all depends on which twirler is in the best form when the warming up process is complete. The Chinese line-up will be the same as usual.

To mark the contest as something special, and a red letter day in local baseball, the players of both teams, league officials, and others, will take part in a big street parade, which will start from the corner of Fort and King streets at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The game is scheduled for 3 o'clock, and with Captain Stayington holding the watch on the players, it's a safe bet 3 means 3. Tickets have been on sale at E. O. Hall & Son's store, and there has been a brisk advance sale, although there will be plenty of good seats left for those who apply at the box office at Athletic Park in good season tomorrow.

Some Uniforms.
Manager Sam Hop and 13 ball players will leave on the Honolulu Tuesday, and the third mainland tour of the Chinese promises to be a rethe Boys' Field. The rivalry will be close and the races promise to be of the most exciting nature. The captains of the various teams have been right on the job lately and all of the runners are in AI condition.

The races will begin at 2 o'clock.

SPORT NOTES OF VALLEY ISLAND

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Feb. 27.—Last Monday evening the annual meeting of the Kahului Tennis Club was held at the Kahului courts. A large number of the members were present. William Waiha was elected president for the coming year, and E. R. Bevins, secretary-treasurer. Committees for various departments of the work of the club were elected, and a tournament will soon be worked up for men's doubles.

On the Pala tennis grounds, the Pala Tennis Club last Saturday evening gave a very pleasant dance for the purpose of raising money for the erection of a grandstand and club room for the ladies who are members of the club. Tennis clothes were specified for the dance, and some unique costumes were to be seen during the evening's fun.

Last evening on the spacious grounds of Capt. W. E. Bal the baseball team, which returned on Wednesday evening from Honolulu, enjoyed a sumptuous luau. The feast was the gift of Maui people who had watched with close interest the work the boys had been doing in Honolulu, and were only too glad to express their thanks to the Maui enthusiasts by giving them a pleasant evening.

schedule. I shall expect you to arrive in Frisco on the 9th, and we play Leland Sanford on the 11th, University of California on the 12th, Los Angeles on the 13th and 14th and I hope to play at San Diego on the 15th and with the University of Arizona on the 16th and 17th. As I had to change these dates owing to your starting a week later than you had expected to. But those suits, say, Sam, I can not get over them. Spalding will take a picture of the window on Sunday with the uniforms in and then they will publish the picture in the College Guide and also in the Spalding Guide, which is a great ad for us as well as for them, as I told Charley White when I saw him today. The cops are keeping the crowd in line to get a look at the suits in the window all day. Well, I hope all is well. We shall send all of the stuff to A. G. S. at Frisco for you, also contracts, etc., as I think that will be the best way. I don't bring on any uniforms with you at all as these are all made and ready to ship when they come out of the window to Frisco for you. With best wishes and trusting that you are all having lots of luck financially and regards to all hands, believe me, as ever,

Your friend,
NAT C. STRONG.

P. S.—Am finding it hard to get a schedule through the states for Kelo University as they want to make their tour during May and June or rather sail for home from the coast on July 1 so there may be nothing doing with them coming east. You know Sam it is no cinch to arrange a schedule with college teams as I am and have been arranging yours since October 15.

Say, Sam, I want a bunch of photos same as last year from you, so get them to me at once.

Say, Sam, when you get into Frisco and get the uniforms, please have a picture taken immediately so that we may have some postals made at once and forward the picture to me here so that I can have the postals made.

ASAHI VS. PUNAHOU TODAY

This afternoon the Asahi and Punahou are looking up on the baseball diamond, in a resumption of the inter-island baseball series. The Japanese team has won two and lost none, while the Puns have a percentage of .500, with one victory and one defeat. If beaten again, it's curtains for Al Castle's outfit, but if it returned a winner, Punahou has a fair chance to annex the inter-island cup.

The game, which will be decided at Athletic Park, at 3:30 is the last in which "Big Bill" Inman will decorate the mound for the Puns. Inman is slated for a deal of track work at Oahu College, and from now until the end of the season must give up his entire time to athletics.

THE WONDERFUL PERSIAN NERVE ESSENCE.

Nothing can be more sad or trying than to see life slowly but surely ebbing away. It is a distress to the beholder as well as the victim. And yet to see thousands of such victims every day—weak, pallid, nervous men, who seem to have lost all interest in life and to have given up all hopes of being cured. Numerous causes lead to this decline of vitality. It is by no means unusual to see a man apparently full of health and vigor suddenly begin to decline without knowing why. The family doctor to whom he applies cannot tell the reason for the sudden change, and treats him for malaria, liver trouble, catarrh, or what not. He tries various medicines without relief. His life is slowly but perceptibly ebbing away.
